PROGUARD APPOINTS MICHAEL HEIJER TO ADVISORY BOARD

ProGuard expands the advisory board by appointing Michael Heijer.

San Francisco, CA, March 10, 2015, ProGuard is pleased to announce the newest addition to their Advisory Board.

Pro Guard Security, a premier provider of security services in the Bay Area, is very pleased to announce that Mr. Michael Heijer, a real estate developer and founder of Northwest Business Bank, as the newest member to join the company's advisory board.

Mr. Heijer is a founder of the Northwest Business Bank and served on the boards of directors of NWB Financial Corporation and Northwest Business Bank until their acquisition by the Pacific Continental Bank (Nasdaq: PCBK) in November 2005. He has more than 20 years' experience in Pacific Northwest hotel and commercial real estate development, while also being the owner of GranCorp, Inc., a commercial real estate investment company with investments in the Pacific Northwest. Mr. Heijer was the founder and part-owner of Teris LLC, formerly American Legal Copy, a litigation support services company serving the West Coast that was formed in 1996, and sold in September 2013. He holds a bachelor's degree in economics from the University of California at Berkeley.

Mr. Heijer will advise on financial structures and corporate development.

"The addition of Mr. Heijer to our Advisory Board allows ProGuard to further develop the company's financial platform for future growth", says Nils Welin, CEO of ProGuard. "Mr. Heijer's financial and transactional experience will be valuable to the company as ProGuard continues to expand organically as well as through acquisitions."
