PROGUARD APPOINTS NEW CEO

ProGuard to expand the Executive Team

San Francisco, CA, January 10, 2015– ProGuard appoints Nils Welin as the new CEO.

ProGuard Security, a premier provider of security services in the Bay Area, is very pleased to announce that Mr. Nils Welin, an entrepreneurial security professional, is appointed as the new CEO for the company.

Mr. Welin is a seasoned CEO in the contract security industry who has successfully built several other security companies. Mr. Welin is very experienced in recruiting security teams that can meet and exceed the clients' expectations.

Prior to joining ProGuard, Mr. Welin was the CEO for a larger regional security company. Under Mr. Welin's well-structured leadership, he grew the company from a marginal 10 employees company tethering on the brink of bankruptcy to the largest local security company in the Bay Area, with 1,000 employees operating out of nine different offices.

Mr. Welin currently serves as the CEO for EON Venture, part owner of ProGuard. By becoming the fulltime CEO of ProGuard, Mr. Welin puts ProGuard on the rails of a success story; set to stretch the previous limits of security services by deploying cutting-edge employee training and integrating the latest technologies available on the market.

"This addition to our Executive Team is of the highest importance to the future growth of ProGuard", says Sergio Reyes, CEO of ProTech Security and co-owner of ProGuard. "As a seasoned security professional myself, I have watched firsthand the transformation that Nils completed and led at his time at other security companies. He is a true entrepreneur with the absolute right skillsets to grow and develop a security company in this complex market. His approach to the industry is truly unique in the most positive way and any security company would greatly benefit from his leadership"
